

ERIK DE CORTE AWARD NOMINATION FORM

Contact information for the proponent
Name
Title
Institution
Email

Why is the nominee an excellent early career researcher and why should they win this award (max. 100 words)?

--

What is innovative about the nominee's research? (max. 100 words)?

--

PhD information of the nominee

Institution
Title
Year

Contact information of the nominee

Name
Title
Institution
Email

Best Publication (1)
(Full reference using APA style)
Why is this publication considered as the nominee's best?
<input type="checkbox"/> I declare that this publication is not produced as a part of or used as data from the nominee's PhD.

Best Publication (2)
(Full reference using APA style)
Why is this publication considered as the nominee's best?
<input type="checkbox"/> I declare that this publication is not produced as a part of or used as data from the nominee's PhD.

Best Publication (3)
(Full reference using APA style)
Why is this publication considered as the nominee's best?
<input type="checkbox"/> I declare that this publication is not produced as a part of or used as data from the nominee's PhD.

Research Project (1)
Title of the Project
Funded by
Project Coordinator
Email
Nominee's role in the project

Research Project (2)
Title of the Project
Funded by
Project Coordinator
Email
Nominee's role in the project

Research Project (3)
Title of the Project
Funded by
Project Coordinator
Email
Nominee's role in the project

Consent of the nominated member

The nominated member shall confirm their agreement of being nominated for the Erik De Corte Award to the EARLI office via e-mail at info@earli.org. Without the consent of the nominated member EARLI cannot consider this person for this award.

- Please ensure that you have also attached with email:
- The comprehensive CV of the nominee;
 - The full PhD thesis in electronic format;
 - Electronic copies of the three selected publications (use the numbering above).

